

Lucky Man (Emerson, Lake & Palmer) [B]

G                    D                    G                    D
 He had white horses                    and ladies by the score
G                    D                    G                    D
 All dressed in satin                    and waiting by the door

[Chorus]

Am                    G                    D sus4/D/sus2 D sus4/D/sus2
 Ooooh, what a lucky man he was
Am                    Em                    D sus4/D/sus2 D
 Ooooh, what a lucky man he was

G                    D                    G                    D
 White lace and feathers                    they made up his bed
G                    D                    G                    D
 A gold covered mattress                    On which he was laid

[CHORUS]

BREAK: verse + chorus

G                    D                    G                    D
 He went to fight wars                    For his country and his king
G                    D                    G                    D
 Of his honor and his glory                    The people would sing

[CHORUS]

G                    D                    G                    D
 A bullet had found him                    His blood ran as he cried
G                    D                    G                    D
 No money could save him                    So he laid down and he died

[CHORUS]

[Chorus chords to fade.....]